

Foreleg Socking

Sock should be tall enough to go over toe and up to the top of the shoulder.

The cut should go through both sides of the sock but NOT through the top.

The "arm" goes through one side of the cut and the foot goes to the bottom of the sock.

Pull the top of the sock over the head to keep it from sliding down.

Now look at our handsome boy in his dandy sock!